

LaRouche, Billington Published In China

The inaugural issue of the bi-annual, English-language edition of the Beijing-based Chinese magazine Strategy and Management has published “The Renaissance of China, An Emergency Plan for the Next 100 Years,” by Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. The article was first published in Chinese translation in the January 1994, inaugural edition (Chinese-language) of the magazine.

In addition, the June issue of the Chinese-language edition has published the first part of a translation of Michael Billington’s “The Taoist Perversion of Twentieth-century Science,” which appeared in English in the Fall 1994 issue of Fidelio. The second part of the Chinese translation will be published in August.

More State Legislators Demand LaRouche Exoneration

A two-page Schiller Institute “Open Letter,” calling for the exoneration of Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. appeared on June 22 in Roll Call, Washington, D.C.’s semi-weekly newspaper, bearing the endorsement of 458 current and former U.S. state legislators. The legislators come from forty-six states and Puerto Rico.

They are joined by twenty-eight former U.S. Congressmen, including former presidential candidate Sen. Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn) and former independent presidential candidate Rep. John G. Schmitz (R-Ca). These Congressmen hail from twenty-one states and span the political spectrum.

The “Open Letter,” which is addressed to the President, prominently cites the “unprecedented international mobilization,” in which close to 1,000 of America’s foremost legal experts had petitioned the court as amici curiae in LaRouche’s 1988 Alexandria, Va. Federal trial, calling the case “a threat to every politically active citizen.”

Failure to exonerate LaRouche, the statement concludes, “does not stain the honor of Lyndon LaRouche, who has paid a terrible price for his innocence, but the honor of the U.S. justice system and Constitution.”

International Support

In addition to the American signers, the ad lists hundreds of parliamentary and other political leaders from around the world, who have joined the call for LaRouche’s exoneration.

From Europe, Dr. Josef Miklosko, former Vice-Prime Minister of the former Czechoslovakia, and Prof. Dr. Hans R. Klecatsky, former Austrian Justice Minister, head the list. Eight members now serving in the European Parliament, including Vice President Prof. Alessandro Fontana (Italy), are also listed, as are parliamentarians from Armenia, Austria, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, the Czech Republic, France,

Billington Federal Filing Exposes Government Violations

EIRNS/Stuart Lewis

China-expert Michael Billington, a political prisoner in Virginia, displays Executive Intelligence Review Chinese-language periodical.

According to papers filed in Federal Court in Richmond July 17, the Commonwealth of Virginia—in concert with corrupt Federal law enforcement officials—knowingly violated the U.S. Constitution when it prosecuted Michael Billington, a political associate and co-defendant of Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr.

The petition for a writ of habeas corpus charges that prosecutors, “motivated by unlawful political animus,” conducted a secret campaign to violate Billington’s rights, including: withholding exculpatory evidence, suppressing evidence of government misconduct, tampering with witnesses, knowingly presenting false evidence
