

LaRouche Warns of Terror Threat, Quijano Factor

Asked during his July 15 webcast for his assessment of Homeland Security Secretary Tom Ridge's proposal that the 2004 Presidential elections could be suspended in case of a terrorist attack, Lyndon LaRouche responded bluntly:

"If we were to accept the idea of calling off the November 4 election, or postponing it—which would mean calling it off—we would no longer have a Republic. We would no longer have a nation. Remember what happened. Just like today, there are some foolish people who say, 'Don't try to get Cheney out as Vice President, because we want him as a liability for Bush, come November.' These people are idiots. They obviously know nothing about history."

LaRouche cited the failure of Germans to stop Adolf Hitler after his January 1933 appointment as Chancellor of Germany, with the argument that Hitler would discredit himself. Then came the orchestrated terrorist incident—the Reichstag Fire—and the emergency decrees which made Hitler dictator. LaRouche then identified the source of the danger today.

The Quijano Factor

"Do any of you know the name of Fernando Quijano? Fernando Quijano is a former associate who was recruited by people such as Nestor Sanchez and by the Nazi organization based in Mexico. The Nazi organization based in Mexico was established there from about 1935 on, directly by Hitler from Berlin, from a special office in Berlin. This coordinated with Hitler's determination to ensure that a Nazi by the name of Francisco Franco, would succeed in establishing a fascist dictatorship in Spain, with the support of Hitler and Mussolini.

became known under such names as the PAN, this group had—in cooperation with Nazi Germany and with Japan—plans up into 1941, up until Midway, until the U.S. fleet defeated the Japanese fleet at Midway in June of 1942. Until that point, this group in Mexico, this group run by the Nazis, using Nazis recruited to Nazism in Mexico, including priests, centered in Guadalajara, a state of Mexico, had plans for military operations of a terrorist nature, against the territory of the United States; trying to incite people of Hispanic backgrounds, especially of Mexican backgrounds in the United States, to become part of this Franquista version of Nazism."

Legacy of the Nazis

"That organization exists today. I warned about it. It exists in Argentina, it exists in Uruguay, it exists in Brazil, it exists in Venezuela, it exists now in Peru, in Bolivia, as well as Mexico, and elsewhere. It is organizing in this area, organizing fools and sympathizers for this kind of—exactly the same kind of propaganda which the Nazis promoted in their operations in Mexico in the 1930's and early 1940's. Is there a possibility that this operation, this so-called Hispanic operation, would be used for a terrorist act or acts in the foreseeable future? Yes. Yes. But that doesn't make any difference about having the election in November, as scheduled. We have the election anyway.

"What we do is, we move to deal with the terrorist threat.

"Now the first step you do to deal with something like that, is you expose it. Now, I've named the name. I could also name another name, an associate of Fernando's, Nestor Sanchez, a resident of Leesburg, or was a resident of Leesburg, Virginia, close to this death squad operation which a so-called section of the CIA was running in Central America, with the approval and support of Fernando. So there is a danger, and the danger is known to us. It's close. It's a danger, the facts of which should be known to the U.S. government, and this kind of problem should be dealt with, by exposing it.

ed. Will it be the people and their long-term interests, or will it be this bunch of Nazis in fact?

From there, LaRouche went on to demonstrate how the economic and financial system is bankrupt, and the U.S. has been destroyed, with the take-down of jobs, the steel industry, hospitals, and railroads. As a result, the U.S. is now a nation of bread and circuses, with the major “product” being entertainment, bigger and more degraded with each passing day.

When the Democratic Party tells people to go with the “system,” it is this arrangement they are demanding you pledge allegiance to, said LaRouche. They’re demanding you ignore the reality of genocide, unemployment, war, and simply save the “system” of a new Roman Empire.

Stopping Fascism

LaRouche was addressing an audience of approximately 220 people, composed of members of his youth movement, diplomats, and Democratic Party leaders. In his webcast invitation, LaRouche had set the theme as “the new threat of fascism today,” and argued that the removal of Cheney, while an indispensable objective, was simply the prelude to the larger, more substantial task of getting Americans to join him in endorsing an FDR-style approach to rebuilding the world economy.

The fact that the event coincided with funeral services for his longtime associate Mark Burdman, led LaRouche to begin his remarks with a discussion of Burdman’s form of immortality, as a concretization of what he would be talking about more generally. By engaging policymakers internationally in a dialogue about LaRouche’s assessments—talking to individuals who might or might not agree with those assessments—Burdman not only significantly aided LaRouche’s efforts, but participated in making history himself, LaRouche said. Burdman’s quality of immortality was defined by the fact that he was a person of ideas.

If you expose it, you isolate it. You neutralize it. You will find this kind of operation depends upon fools. You recruit fools to put their lives on the line for the dirty work which a handful are leading.”

Blas Piñar Connection

“And the direction of this is coming out of Spain, out of fascist Spain, because the fascist organization still exists there, under leadership of people, Fernando’s close associate Blas Piñar, who was the head of Nazi-like organizations in Spain, in France and in Italy today. He’s a key leader of it. Therefore, if we expose the stuff, and move to isolate the chairman of the United Iraqi Patriotic Movement, which includes Iraqis of all religious persuasions, issued a statement of support. And, on May 3, the chairman of the Executive Board of the Iraq Information and Research Center, Dr. Mostafa Ali Al-Bazergan, issued a statement on behalf of his entire executive board, in support of the LaRouche Doctrine, “and the aspects presented therein that ensure the interests of the Iraqi people and the ending of the American occupation of Iraq in a way which protects the interests of both sides and establishes balanced, mutual relations based on the principle of dialogue and understanding.”

hard-core perpetrators, and cause their dupes to run away, that’s the first step.”

LaRouche noted that, “You have also the Huntington thesis on the Hispanic war with the United States, as the Arab. Now, the Hispanic one is different, but it has a character, and we have as much danger from this Hispanic problem as we do—even though Huntington’s a liar about what he says the problem is, nonetheless there is a real problem, which is Nazism of a Spanish-speaking variety. Of the Nazism that was planted in the United States, by the Nazi Party, by Hitler’s order, in Mexico, and other countries, and reintroduced to Mexico by William F. Buckley, senior and son, in the post-war period, as a CIA office agent in Mexico.”

based Arabic daily Al-Arab International published LaRouche’s full document with banner headlines outlining the LaRouche solution as the means of “achieving and enhancing peace.”

Meanwhile, the Doctrine also received prominent publicity in Italy, where one newspaper, Il Campanile, published it in full, and the parliamentary news service Agenparl publicized both the Doctrine, and the call by LaRouche’s representative in Italy, Paolo Raimondi, for individuals to rally around LaRouche’s solution.

While LaRouche puts forward a clear course of action for getting out of Iraq, the crisis for the U.S. occupation force in that nation has only worsened. A lasting solution will require a change in Washington, with the embrace of the LaRouche Doctrine, and the dumping of the Dick Cheney-led neo-cons who instigated the war.

are still viable. To give them a picture of what the reality is that we have to deal with; and to build a programmatic base within the combination bringing Kerry to victory in the election. A base which then becomes the basis for a new orientation of the United States, adequate to the crisis we’re going to get into.”

Within days of the Convention’s close, LaRouche Youth activists were already back in Boston, and fanning out to the formerly industrial Midwest and the Deep South, to provide the winning margin in a dozen “swing states,” and rapidly expand the legions of LaRouche Youth, who truly hold the key to the Party and the nation’s future.
